

PRIVACY NOTICE

Updated: 13th August 2019 v.2

Due to changes in the Data Protection Laws with the implementation of GDPR (General Data Protection Regulations) we want to make sure you understand what personal information we may collect about you when you interact with Barentz and its group of companies.

What personal information do we collect?

Information provided to us by you, either in paper or electronic format, such as:

- your name and contact details
- an email communication sent by you
- details sent via the "Contact Form"
- information gathered if you report an adverse event or log a medical enquiry

What is the purpose of processing this personal information?

- To fulfil our contract with you

We collect and use your information primarily for the purpose of managing our working relationship with you, for example in order to arrange payment for the provision of your services, including purchase orders, to manage our business relationship with you and to fulfill any contractual obligations owed to you.

- Where required by Law

The Company may be required under local laws to maintain records that can include personal information, for mandatory reporting, tax and accounting requirements.

- To operate our business

To respond to any report that you may make that relates to a product we manage/distribute or manufacture.

To comply with applicable laws, regulations and guidance.

To comply with demands or requests made by regulators, governments, courts and law enforcement authorities.

On what basis do we use your personal information?

The new Data Privacy Law sets out a number of different reasons which a company may rely on to collect and use your personal information.

We use your personal information for the following reasons:

- For legitimate business purposes: We use your personal information to make the contact we have with you more relevant and tailored to your specific requirements.
- To perform a contract to which you are a party: we may need to process your personal information to provide a product or service you request.

- To comply with our legal obligations and other demands for information: It is important that we are able to provide details held if asked to do so by a regulatory body or as required by a local law.
- Where you have consented: For certain types of information the Company may rely on your consent to the use of such information. In that event you will be entitled to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Data Co-Ordinator for UK and Ireland at: Registered Office: Barentz UK Limited, Crown House, 2-8 Gloucester Road, Redhill, Surrey. RH1 1FH. Registered number: 1762605.

How long do we keep your personal information?

The Company maintains reasonable security measures to safeguard your information from loss, interference, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration or destruction. The Company also maintains reasonable procedures to help ensure that such data is reliable for its intended use and is accurate, complete and current.

Your personal information will be kept for the period required by law and where we need to do so in connection with any legal action or investigation involving Barentz UK Limited.

Your rights regarding your personal information

You may be entitled to:

- Ask Barentz UK Limited for access to the personal information we hold;
- Request the correction and/or deletion of your personal information;
- Request the restriction of the processing of your personal information, or object to that processing;
- Withdraw your consent (where you have previously given Barentz UK Limited consent)
- Make a complaint if you feel your privacy rights have been violated, or if you have suffered as a result of unlawful processing of your personal information.

Changes to this Notice

The provisions of this notice may be altered by the Company from time to time. Any alteration or additional will be posted at www.barentz.com
